ServNet Adds Director of Meetings and Event Coordinator

GREENSBURG, Pennsylvania – July 15th “We are excited to have Ana Williams join the ServNet team as the Director of Meetings and Events. Many of us at ServNet worked with Ana in her previous role as Education and Training Manager at NAAA, and we were unanimous in our decision that Ana was the right person to develop best-in-class events for our members and consignors,” said Ryan Clark, President of ServNet. “Ana will work closely with our Executive Director, Chris Angelicchio, as we continue to be the premier independent auction organization in the Country. In addition to coordinating events for our customers and members, Ana will help develop training for the team members at our auctions. This investment in our team members is crucial to allow us to continue to provide the best customer service in the industry. We could not be more excited to have Ana join the team, and we look forward to seeing everyone in Orlando.”

Williams has a unique blend and approach to event planning, combining creativity and precision to execute events. Over the years, she has overseen corporate conferences, industry trade shows, educational seminars, and networking functions. Williams will bring her dedication to excellence and attention to detail to ServNet’s events and meetings. In addition to event coordination, Williams will work alongside the ServNet leadership and membership to create educational training and initiatives for the ServNet membership.

“I am thrilled to join the ServNet team and look forward to working alongside the fantastic leadership to build upon the successful groundwork ServNet has in place. With leadership, and alongside the membership, I look forward to bringing initiatives to life that bring value to the ServNet membership,” said Williams.

ServNet is the nation's premier auction network, focused on building cooperative business relationships and accelerating the value of dealer-only auctions using the most up-to-date services and technology. Since 1988, ServNet member auctions have been working together to provide the full range of remarketing services, including the best auctioneers, inspections, reconditioning, transportation assistance and inventory financing.
